

How To Cancel Norton Subscription And Get Refund

To cancel your Norton subscription and request a refund, start by signing in to your Norton account. Navigate to the “My Subscriptions” section and locate the plan you want to cancel. Turn off automatic renewal to stop future charges. If you’re eligible for a refund, contact Norton Support directly through chat or phone and provide your order details. Norton typically grants refunds within their stated refund window, so act promptly. Once your request is processed, you’ll receive confirmation by email. Always review Norton’s refund policy to ensure your subscription qualifies before submitting your request for timely and successful processing overall.

If you have recently been charged and want your money back, McAfee usually offers a refund within a limited window, often within 30 days of purchase or renewal. To request a refund, visit the McAfee Support page and choose the option for billing or refund assistance. You may be directed to chat with an agent or submit a request form. Provide details such as your email, order number, and reason for cancellation.

Once approved, refunds are typically processed back to your original payment method. Keep confirmation emails for your records.
